

Year 3 – Summer – Geography – Pupil Knowledge Organiser

What do I already know?		What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> England is in the United Kingdom, in Europe, in the Northern Hemisphere. The UK is on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean. Physical features are natural parts of the world around us. Southeast England has a temperate climate, with mild temperatures. Human features are the parts of the world created by/relating to humans. Settlements in Southeast England include: London, Brighton and Southampton. 		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Where are the UK and Jamaica on a world map? What is the weather and climate like in the Lake District and Portland? What physical features can we find in the Lake District and Portland? What human features can we find in the Lake District and Portland? How do people earn a living in the Lake District and Portland? How are the Lake District and Portland similar and different?
Key Knowledge: The Lake District & Portland Parish		Geographical Skills	Key Vocabulary
 The Lake District is in the northwest of England.  Jamaica is an island country in North America. Portland is a region in the east of Jamaica.	 Portland has a tropical climate. The Lake District has a temperate climate.  The Blue Mountains are a well-known mountain range in Portland. Scafell Pike is a mountain in the Lake District.  Portland has the Rio Grande river. The Lake District has Lake Windemere.	 Mapwork: Using maps, globes and atlases to answer questions and communicate geographical information.  Interpret a Range of Sources: Using different sources of information to answer questions.  Communicate Geographical Information: Sharing the answers to our questions in the best way possible.	settlement A place where people live, like a village, town or city. rural A place in the countryside with fewer buildings and people. urban A place with lots of buildings and people, like a town or city. region A smaller area within a country with its own special features. climate The usual weather in a place over a long time. weather What the sky and air are like each day, such as sunny, rainy or windy. mountains Tall, rocky parts of the land that rise high above the ground. river A long, flowing body of water that usually goes into the sea. land use How people use land, such as for farming, homes, or businesses. economic activity The ways that people in a country make money. tourism When people visit places for holidays.
 The Lake District has towns, tourist centres, and farms. Portland has towns, rural villages and beaches.  In the Lake District, common jobs include sheep/dairy farming. In Portland, common jobs include banana and coffee farming and fishing.  Tourism is important in both regions because of the beautiful scenery and outdoor activities.			